1. No Soviet troops were seen in the area crossed by the Ducharest-Medias-Curtici railroad line, although large numbers of Rumanian troops wearing berets were observed detraining between Medias and Copsa Mica. A trainload of twenty-eight new heavy tanks was observed travelling west between Medias and Mojna. It is believed that maneuvers are to take place in this general area.
2. Reportedly, all foreign-owned houses in Predeal are presently occupied by motorized troops of the Securitate wearing blue uniforms. The national highway between Predeal and Campina has been declared off limits to all civilian vehicles and pedestrians.
3. In early July the sale of gasoline, edible oils, sugar, flour, salt, and matches was halted. These articles are no longer available to the holders of heavy ration cards in Medias.
4. Reportedly the degree of war psychosis among the Rumanian population, including the working class, is extreme.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
